Discover Gundaroo

Day One

Neat Street Gundaroo (Food)

Neat Street coffee is the new place in Gundaroo to find good vibes, great coffee and easy eats. Neat street coffee is two mobile coffee caravans that could pop up anywhere, anytime and change your day from mediocre to magnificent. The main location Wednesday - Sunday is in Faithfull Street Gundaroo. On any given day you will find the locals mingling out the front of the sweet little vintage coffee van. Call in to see it for yourself.

Gundaroo Heritage Walk (inc Gundaroo Soldiers Memorial Hall)

Gundaroo Soldiers Memorial Hall is a significant venue for social and cultural activities in the Gundaroo village and its rural community. The Hall is routinely hired at no cost for public meetings and community events, choir rehearsals, after-school activities, film nights, and community fundraising such as the Cancer Council's Biggest Morning Tea. The Gundaroo Film Society holds monthly screenings that are well-attended events on the local social calendar. The Hall is frequently used for private gatherings and even weddings. The Hall's commercial kitchen facilitates food-based fundraising at a scale not possible at any other publicly accessible venue in Gundaroo village. The Management Committee has been gradually upgrading the building since its original construction as a skating rink in 1890.
